

History Maker Award

Nominee is not required to be located in Springfield, but their body of work must demonstrate a strong focus and/or impact within the Urban Growth Boundary (UGB) of Springfield. Any individual, organization, company, or local, state or federal agency involved in historic preservation is eligible for nomination.

Nominee Name:

Nominator Name:

Nominee Phone:

Nominator Phone:

Nominee Email:

Nominator Email:

Nominee Mailing Address:

Nominator Mailing Address:

Contributions (Required. 400 words max, each question)

What heritage activities has the nominee taken part in? Describe the nominee's role:

How has the nominee gone above and beyond the ordinary call of duty?:

How do the nominee's activities impact the local community and its heritage?:

How has the nominee made the most of available resources and skill?:

Did the nominee use new ideas, approaches or innovations? Please describe:

Letters of Support (Required)

Please submit two letters of support for this nomination:

Promotional Images (Required. The City may follow up with award winners to obtain promotional images. These images may be used for online and printed media for awards publicity. Please include photo credits where applicable. All materials subject to a trademark or copyright must be clearly indicated)

Please submit one image that demonstrates their body of work:

Supplemental Materials (Not Required)

Include any additional relevant materials, such as photos/descriptions of significant projects, resume/CV, or other content that supports the nomination.:

The nominee ____ is aware ____ is not aware of this nomination. (Self-nominations should mark "is aware".) If the nominee is aware of this nomination, I represent that I have the nominee's consent to submit the nomination form and supporting materials, including the nominee's likeness and any photographs, documents, or other content submitted with this nomination ("nomination submission package"). As the submitter, I consent to the City's nonexclusive use, reproduction, alteration, distribution, and/or public display of any or all components of the nomination submission package. If the nominee is not aware of the nomination, the City will obtain nominee's consent before displaying or publishing their likeness.